

These By-Laws may be amended by a two-thirds majority of the Committee members present at the OSSL meetings at which a total represents a quorum.

Article XIII - Meetings

The Committee, shall set the meeting dates and times, as needed.

Article XIV- Quorum

A Quorum shall mean Fifty-One (51%) of any member body present is needed to conduct business. For purposes of the League, and our By-Laws, 51% of Committee are needed to conduct business.

Article XV - Rules of Order

In the absence of specific rules or by-laws, the Committee shall act in the best interest of the League. A majority vote of the Committee will govern or, if needed, outside counsel may be sought. The Committee may appoint a Parliamentarian for business meetings of the League.

Article XVII - Membership Expulsion

Any member of the OSSL who behaves in an inappropriate manner, makes threats to any member of the of Committee or Players or Umpires, threatens to file, or files a lawsuit against anyone affiliated with the League, is convicted of a felony crime or acts in a disruptive manner may be expelled by the OSSL Committee.

Individual Players may appeal to the Board.